

2024 “I VOTED” STICKER DESIGN CONTEST

The Lunenburg County Registrar’s Office is seeking a way for voters to showcase local pride with our first “I Voted” Sticker Design Contest. The chosen sticker design will be used to represent voters from across the county, both on Election Day and year-round on the Registrar’s website. This contest is open to all Lunenburg County residents, including students as the next generation of voters to promote interest in the election process, particularly during a presidential election year.

GUIDELINES

Participants must be residents of Lunenburg County, Virginia.
Sticker design must be an original idea and not infringe or violate any law, including copyrights.
The phrase, “I Voted” must be legible and included in the design.
Designs must be in a two-inch (2”) diameter circle.
Designs may be hand drawn or digital art.
Designs must not use more than four (4) colors.
Designs must be non-partisan (no references to candidates, political parties, or political issues).
Designs must be non-offensive and appropriate for all audiences.
Designs may, but are not required to, reference 2024 and/or the presidential election.

Entries will be evaluated based on (a) uniqueness of the design in relation to Lunenburg County; (b) clarity, strength, and effectiveness of design, and (c) overall aesthetics or eye-catching ability.

All entries should be submitted to the General Registrar’s Office. Make sure to include a completed “I Voted” Sticker Design Contest Entry Form and artwork (hard copy, JPEG or PDF).

DEADLINES

The submission period ends June 1, 2024.

After the submission period ends, Lunenburg County residents will be able to vote for their favorite sticker design among the finalists. Finalists are encouraged to tell family and friends about the contest and ask them to participate in voting. Members of the public may vote for the sticker of their choice amongst the selected finalists. Public voting begins on the June 18th Primary Election day and ends June 30, with the winner announced at the July 2nd Electoral Board meeting.

PRIZES

The winning artwork will be used in Lunenburg County as the official sticker for the November 5, 2024, Presidential Election. It will be featured on the Lunenburg County General Registrar’s website and may appear on media outlets such as newspaper and social media platforms as well.

Winner: $100 VISA Gift Card (donated)

Finalists will be awarded $10-25 gift cards to local businesses
